 Intr-un meci disputat dupa "regulile " lui Maywether , acesta a fost declarat invingator la puncte impotriva lui Pacquiao !
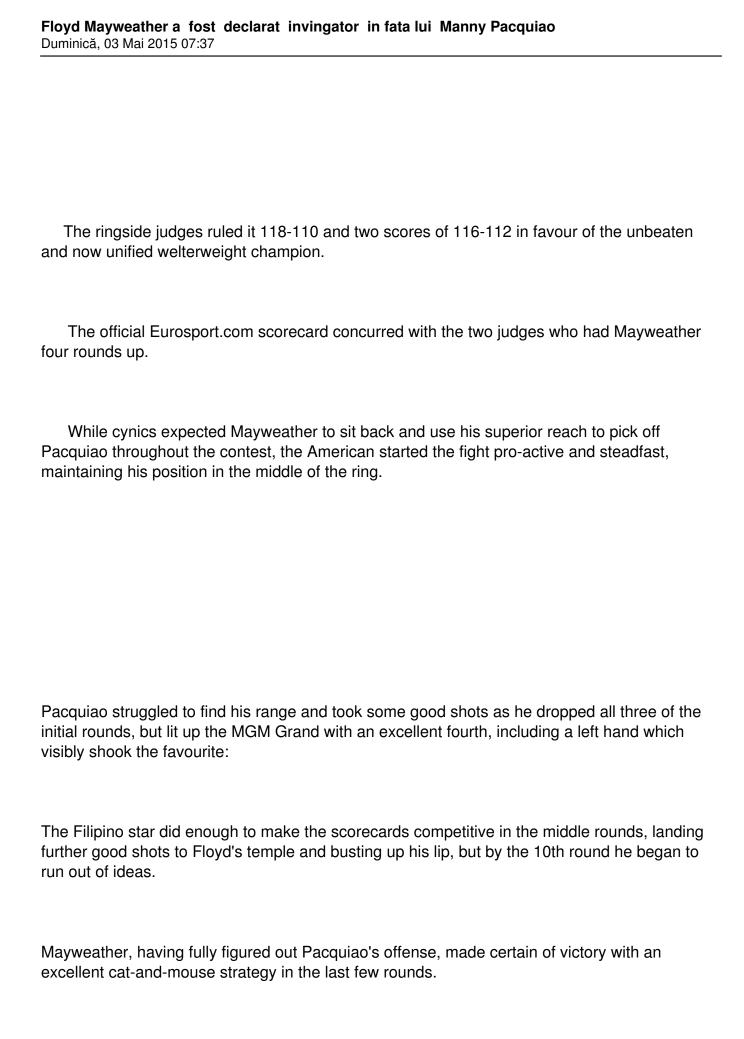

Din punctul meu de vedere Maywether trebuia descalificat pentru NONCOMBAT - tot meciul a fugit de lupta !

Dar asta este viata !

Boxing - Floyd Mayweather beats Manny Pacquiao to go 48-0
Floyd Mayweather won 'the fight of the century' via decision over Manny Pacquiao in an engrossing battle in Las Vegas.

The ringside judges ruled it 118-110 and two scores of 116-112 in favour of the unbeaten and now unified welterweight champion.

The official Eurosport.com scorecard concurred with the two judges who had Mayweather four rounds up.

While cynics expected Mayweather to sit back and use his superior reach to pick off Pacquiao throughout the contest, the American started the fight pro-active and steadfast, maintaining his position in the middle of the ring.

Pacquiao struggled to find his range and took some good shots as he dropped all three of the initial rounds, but lit up the MGM Grand with an excellent fourth, including a left hand which visibly shook the favourite:

The Filipino star did enough to make the scorecards competitive in the middle rounds, landing further good shots to Floyd's temple and busting up his lip, but by the 10th round he began to run out of ideas.

Mayweather, having fully figured out Pacquiao's offense, made certain of victory with an excellent cat-and-mouse strategy in the last few rounds.

WHAT THEY SAID

Floyd Mayweather: "All 47 fights before this played a major key, I want to win all fights badly. Pacquiao is a true champion and we were both at our best. I knew I would get hit. I played it smart."

Manny Pacquiao: "It was a good fight. I thought I won. He didn't really do anything. It wasn't about the size. I've fought bigger than him. Now I'll take a vacation and see what is next."
