

[illegible]

Pursuant to the initial UEFA and Financial Fair Play Regulations Spanish tax authorities and, consequently, participating in the next two UEFA during the next four seasons, the second exclusion becoming effective only if Malagá CF did not regularise its overdue payables towards other clubs by 31 March 2013.

In its appeal to the CAS, the Spanish or, alternatively, replaced with a new decision During the CAS proceedings, Malagá CF regularised its overdue payables towards other clubs.

Consequently, UEFA admitted that the exclusion from the second UEFA European competition for which it would otherwise qualify during the next four seasons became moot.

The procedure was referred to the Panel, Mr José Juan Pintó with their representatives and witnesses were heard at a hearing held headquarters in Lausanne.

The CAS Panel has issued its decision, without the grounds later date.

Court of Arbitration for Sport

MEDIA RELEASE

thieu Switzerland. Tel: (41 21) 613 50 00; fax: (41 21) 613 50 01, or tas-cas.org

FOOTBALL

HE MALAGÁ C.F. IS DISMISSED

COURT OF ARBITRATION FOR SPORT (CAS)

he SAD (Spain) against the decision taken on 21 300'000.

decision, Malagá CF violated the UEFA Club Licensing System following overdue payables toward other clubs and the
was fined EUR 300,000 and exclude European competitions for which it would otherwise qualify
, March 2013.

club requested that the UEFA decision should be annulled including less severe sanctions.

regularised its overdue payables towards other clubs.

a Panel composed of Prof. Ulrich Haas (Germany), President of (Spain) and Prof. Massimo Coccia (Italy).

on 4 June

grounds, which will be communicated at a

Château de Béthusy,

dismissed the appeal

December 2012

(the "UEFA

excluded from

ised). The parties, together

2013 at the CAS

,