

The Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) has filed by Malagá Club de Futbol by the Adjudicatory Chamber of the UEFA Club Financial Control Body decision”).

□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □□□□

□□□□□□□□ As a consequence, the Spanish club is excluded from the UEFA Europa League 2013/14 and will have to pay a fine or EUR 300'000.

Pursuant to the initial UEFA and Financial Fair Play Regulations Spanish tax authorities and, consequently, participating in the next two UEFA during the next four seasons, the second exclusion becoming effective only if Malagá CF did not regularise its overdue payables towards other clubs by 31 Mach 2013.

In its appeal to the CAS, the Spanish or, alternatively, replaced with a new decision During the CAS proceedings, Malagá CF regularised its overdue payables towards other clubs.

Consequently, UEFA admitted that the exclusion from the second UEFA European competition for which it would otherwise qualify during the next four seasons became moot.

The procedure was referred to the Panel, Mr José Juan Pintó with their representatives and witnesses were heard at a hearing held headquarters in Lausanne.

The CAS Panel has issued its decision, without the grounds later date.

Court of Arbitration for Sport

MEDIA RELEASE

thieu Switzerland. Tel: (41 21) 613 50 00; fax: (41 21) 613 50 01, or tas-cas.org

FOOTBALL

HE MALAGÁ C.F. IS DISMISSED

COURT OF ARBITRATION FOR SPORT (CAS)

Malaga SAD (Spain) against the decision taken on 21

March 2013.

The decision, Malagá CF violated the UEFA Club Licensing System following overdue payables toward other clubs and the club was fined EUR 300,000 and excluded from European competitions for which it would otherwise qualify for the UEFA Europa League, March 2013.

Malagá CF requested that the UEFA decision should be annulled including less severe sanctions.

Malagá CF regularised its overdue payables towards other clubs.

The appeal was heard by a Panel composed of Prof. Ulrich Haas (Germany), President of the CAS (Spain) and Prof. Massimo Coccia (Italy).

The decision was issued on 4 June

2013, the grounds, which will be communicated at a press conference at the Château de Béthusy,

France, on 11 June 2013. The appeal was dismissed on 11 June 2013.

Malagá CF

is excluded from

the UEFA Europa League (the “UEFA

Europa League”). The parties, together with the CAS, will meet on 11 June

2013 at the CAS